

I am an XM listener and I think the recent attempts at stifling Satellite Radio Broadcasters from delivering local content to it's listeners is not right. We live in a free society that should not try to use influence to stop competition just because a new and better product is introduced. Please take this into consideration when casting your votes.

Thank you,

Jose' A. Miranda